FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache, and Billous Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in billary derangement, caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries. No one remedy is louder called for by the necessities of the American people than a sure and safe cure for Fever and Ague. Such we are now enabled to offer, with a perfect certainty that it will eradicate the disease, and with assurance, founded on proof, that no barm can arise from its use in any quantity.

That which protects from or prevents this disorder must 15 00 Prevention is better than cure, for the patient escapes the risk which he must run in violent attacks of this baleful distemper. This "CURE" expels the miasmatic poison of FEVER AND AGUE from the system and prevents the develop ment of the disease, if taken on the first approach of its premonitory symptoms. It is not only the best remedy ever yet discovered for this class of complaints, but also the heapest. The large quantity we supply for a dollar brings it within the reach of everybody; and in bilious districts, where FEVER AND AGUE prevails, everybody should have it and use it freely both for cure and protection. It is hoped this price will place it within the reach of all-the poor as well ass the rich. A great superiority of this remedy over season till frost. The Well of Water is as good as this counany other ever discovered for the speedy and certain cure of Intermittents is, that it contains no Quinine or mineral, consequently it produces no quinine or other injurious ness and Farming purposes. There are about 175 Acres of effects whatever upon the constitution. Those cured by it are left as healthy as if they had never had the disease. Fever and Ague is not alone the consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great varity of disorders arise from its irritation, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and consequently cures them all alike. It is an invaluable protection to immigrants

MESSRS. FULTON & PRICE : Gentlemen :- We have noticed that you have copied from the "Raleigh Standard" what you have appropriately denominated "a remarkable document or manifesto," which has emanated from a highly respectable citizen of Guilford, " by virtue of my (his) appointment as a member of the National Executive Committee of the Democratic party." Waiving the authority from whence Mr. Dick derives his right to issue this call for a Convention of the Douglas Democracy of North Carolina, and passing by the unauthorized and ill-timed impression sought to be made by "Yancey secessionists," we come directly to the impropriety, as well as the impolicy, of any such movement as he now seeks to inaugurate. The friends of Judge Douglas in this State cannot, at least they ought not, to shut their eyes to the fact, that at a crisis like the present, the first consideration with every Southern man, (we use the term Southern man, for this is pre-eminently a Southern question) should be to sacrifice all minor differences, all preference for men, in order that the South should be a unit in purpose. They are not called upon to sacrifice any principle in going for the Southern ticket, unless it be, (and we cannot do them the injustice even to harbor such a thought) that they affirm, with Judge Douglas, that "the people of a Territory can by lawful means exclude slavery before it becomes a State, and no matter what may be the decision of the Supreme Court on that abstract to make a slave Territory is perfect and complete."

No, we cannot, we will not, even intimate that any of them indorse the above Squatter Sovereign heresy, for we know many of the leaders of the Douglas party too well even to insinuate as much; they are too high toned, too chivalrous, and too much imbued with the true Southern sentiments, to give in to such political

Why then, stand aloof from the Breckinridge ticket, and waste their energies, and probably lose that proud position that many of them have occupied in fighting

What principle, either great or small, do the Douglas part of North Carolina sacrifice in the support of the Southern ticket? None whatever, for, if we understand them, they hold upon this vital question the sentiments of the Southern candidate. True, they complain that gross injustice has been done to their favorite by the Southern delegates in Convention; that a determination was fixed upon, by a few ruling spirits of the South, not to take him. Grant all that is here demanded, will they dare deny that tenfold grosser injustice would have been done the South, had he been forced upon them with his construction of territorial rights. Would not his nomination, under all the circumstances by which it was pressed, accompanied by all the reasons for which it was resisted, have been an endorsement by the South of the very doctrines combatted? Would not "non-intervention," as ceding delegates at Baltimore, for extremely hopeless must it be, when the entire Democratic presses of the State, backed by at least nine-tenths of the Democracy thereof, have endorsed their recommendation. Do the Douglas party not know that, as a party in this State, we have nothing to gain, but much to lose, by an internecine political warfare among ourselves, and that by splitting our people into factions, we are more apt to be shorn of the essential strength necessary to carry out measures identified with the best interests of the State?

You cannot, you must not, suppose, in the language of the Wilmington Journal, "that the great majority of the delegates from this State to Charleston and Baltimore-the electoral ticket, chosen by the party of the State, or the Districts respectively-the Democratic press-the Democratic candidate for Governor-the Democratic delegation in Congress-all are wrong, and are awed by dictation from the administration at Washington City on the one hand, or the 'Yancey secessionists' on the other." Such a supposition would be rash in you, and altho'

you have preferred the charge, we have only to say, that We say, then, to the friends of Judge Douglas, you can unite with us in the support of Breckinridge and Lane, but that we cannot, for the reasons given, come to the support of Judge Douglas, for his territorial sovereignty has placed a wide, as well as impassable, gulf be-Not so, however, with you, for if we understand even the position you now occupy, you are still with us upon this question; and that for the reason that you are will depend entirely upon the course you pursue in this, our trying emergency; for, rest fully assured, the Democracy of North Carolina will hold to a rigid responsibility the inauguration of a step so perfectly uncalled for, and so replete with mischief to a common party.
